The youth of 21st generation have limited every celebration to selfies and social media. Independence Day is no exception. While it's a mere chance to catch upon sleep for some people, a few innocent minds actually feel the buzz in their bones.

9th – 11th October, 2016 NAVARATRI CELEBRATIONS

Venue:, 10S1 Hostel common room at Mody University

Mody University is a place full of cultures and diversity. It's a place where people of different caste and culture unite together, live together, educate together and celebrate festivals with joy and happiness. Several different kinds of festivals are celebrated at Mody University, and one of them is Navratri. Navratri is celebrated all the nine days by conducting a regular Aarti of Goddess Durga at the 10S1 Hostel common room, where all students would gather every day for the Durga Aarti. SET had a grand celebration on the last day of Navratri "Maha Navami" at Hostel 12S1, where all the students gathered up wearing flamboyant traditional outfits with various decorations done with lights and rangoli to lit up a traditional environment with all Navratri-Garba songs being played around on which the students enjoyed dancing, and it was later on carried with the Maha Aarti done by Dean SET followed by distribution of Indian sweets as Prasad.
