16th October, 2016

Subject: Approval to organize an in-house workshop on Research Methodology

Dear Sir,

With due respect, I would like to seek for your kind permission to organize a one-day workshop on Research Methodology in the month of November. As per the research policy of the Institute, we need to conduct two seminars in the autumn semester. The first workshop was already conducted on 2nd May, 2016. In the month of December, the faculty members would be busy in performing exam-related activities. Therefore, we can organize the workshop in the month of November so that all stakeholders can ensure their participation. The details related to the seminar are mention below:

Theme:	Research Methodology
Targeted Participants:	Faculty members and research scholars
Tentative Date:	6th November or 13th or 21st November, 2016
Venue:	Conference Room of the COBMEC
Timings:	9.00 A.M. to 3.30 P.M. (Including Tea break of 30 minutes and lunch break of an hour)
Resource Person:	Dr. Rajesh Sharma and Prof. Sumit Kulshrestha

Hoping for your kind approval!

Yours Sincerely

Dr. Rajesh Sharma

Research Methodology Workshop's Report

It is a matter of great pleasure that the College of Business Management Economics and Commerce organized a one-day workshop on 21st November, 2016 on the theme, "Research Methodology". The motive behind this seminar was to inculcate the research acumen among faculty members and research scholars. Around 20 faculty members and Ph.D. scholars participated in this conference. In the beginning Dean of the School of Management study gave his inaugural speech; thereafter, Dr. Rajesh Sharma, a senior faculty member of the School of Management Study delivered his lecture. Dr. Sharma, in his lecture mentioned about the need for the title selection, research tools, data collection, results, and discussion. He also elaborated the difference between qualitative and quantitative studies where he demonstrated that how a researcher should add new dimension in his/her study. After lunch, Prof. Sumit Kulsreshtha managed the session and he delivered his lecture. In the end, Dr. Manish Didwania gave the vote of thanks.

Report of Workshop on IPR

Date: 2nd May 2016

Resource Person: Dr. Rajesh Sharma

It is a matter of great pleasure that the College of Business Management and Economics and Commerce organized a one-day workshop on 2nd May 2016 the theme, "Intellectual Property Rights". The motive behind this seminar was to make acquainted faculty members about the basics of the Intellectual Property Rights. Around 20 plus faculty members and Ph.D. scholars participated in this conference.

The workshop begins with the History of Intellectual Property from beginning to evolving phase. Subsequently explaining the formation of World Intellectual Property Organization and its roles and functions i.e., IPR agreement administration, IPR Practices harmonization. Further explaining the Indian scenario of Intellectual property system and the Office of the Controller General of Patents, Designs and Trademarks, Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion. Subsequently explaining the roles and functions of Intellectual property Office in India. Finally explaining the process of filing the Patent application, Copyright application, Trademark application, Design application and the Scheme for Facilitating Start-ups Intellectual Property Protection. The discussion session has more interactions from students and this workshop kindle the younger minds of the university. Dr. Rajesh Sharma, a senior faculty member of the School of Management Study delivered his lecture. Dr. Sharma, in his lecture mentioned about the present scenario and basics about the IPR in India. In the end, Dr. B.S Rathore gave the vote of thanks.

About the event: A one day workshop on "Seminar on Patent and copyright" was organized by College of Fashion Design and Merchandising on 15th April 17 for all Design students of Mody University. Mr. Deepak Khandelwal faculty College of Fashion Design and Merchandising coordinated & taught students about the Patent and copyright the topics covered were Introduction to patent and copyright, patent for technical invention,process of patent protection, importance of patent and copyright,difference between copyright and patent introduction of IPRs, their importance practical applications , and how to get the work patented and copyrighted.

Title: Seminar on Patent and copyright

Aim: To understand difference between patent and copyright

Venue: Room No. 333, ABB Building

Expert Details: Prof. Nita Thakore

Profile: Biographical Sketch:

MFA,BFA (MSU, Vadodara),Principal Scholar selected for Fulbright fellowship, Visual arts, textiles by the United States Educational Foundation in India (New Delhi) & Institute of International Education (Washington DC, USA). Travel Grant sponsored by Council for International Exchange of Scholars, Washington DC (Institute of International Education NY). 8th Europeen Du Patchwork c/o Office Du Tourisme, Saint Marie Aux Mines, Alsace. India and Italy were jointly 'Guests of Honour' at the event.

Conclusion

The concept of patent and copyrights are demonstrated efficiently by Prof. Nita Thakore by giving examples of applications and implication in design field. Based on participating students' feedback, it was observed that students have learned many new things such as awareness about IPRs, especially patents and copyrights protection. The participants of the workshop will be able to understand the procedures to convert the research outcome into patents. The knowledge provided by the expert in the seminar will guide researchers/inventors in respect of patenting their inventions & to provide insight into practical applications of IP such as patent drafting, patentability search and freedom to operate search, validity/invalidity search, and evidence of use analysis. Students were delighted to attend this workshop. The Knowledge provided in this workshop was an eye opener for the students regarding the intellectual work they are doing and would be carrying out in future too. Understand the process of patenting and copyright, many students planned to get their work copyrighted and patented.

Conclusion

Mr. Khandelwal demonstrated well the Intellectual Property Right and its significance in design industry very systematically. It was observed that based on participating participants' feedback, it was observed that participants attained knowledge about Intellectual Property Rights. Such a seminar is to impart greater awareness about the issues of Intellectual Property Right (IPR), which has gained a special importance for all the domains of socio-economic development. It also created awareness about the cases related to the IPR. Apart from this, participants were also told about how one can protect their patents and copyrights at Indian and International level. The level of participant's satisfaction and workshop outcome in the form of photographs shared reflects a lot about the significance of such an event. It was also observed that participants requesting to conduct such knowledge boosting seminars periodically.

Glimpses of Seminar on Patent filling Process

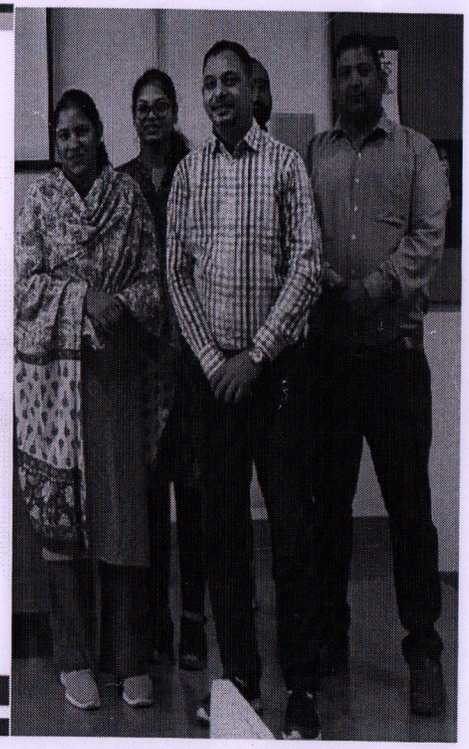

Conclusion

The significance of innovations in design industry and filing a patent of an innovation was systematically demonstrated by the Mr. Khandelwal. The steps involved in filing a patent were also discussed. Based on participating participants' feedback, it was observed that participants learned many new things in the seminar. One of the major requirements for a start-up to be qualified in the "Start-up India" campaign is that it needs to have patents and this workshop gave participants a view of the patent filing procedure in India and also gave them a hands-on experience on drafting a patent. The seminar encouraged participants towards filing patents on their projects and future start-ups. The level of participant's satisfaction and workshop outcome in the form of photographs shared earlier indicates a lot about the significance of such an event.

India and Italy were jointly 'Guests of Honour' at the event.

Conclusion

Based on participating participants' feedback, it was observed that participants have learned about the different steps involved in filing a patent of an innovation. The seminar created awareness about the Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and Patent Filing Process. Design participants understood the importance of patenting the new innovations and creations to prevent others from making, selling, retailing, or importing that work/design thus creating opportunities to sell, trade or license their patented technologies/work/designs with others who may want to use them. The level of participant's satisfaction and workshop outcome indicates the significance of such an event. Professor Thakore demonstrates very systematically the patent filing process.

Seminar Report on Innovative Projects and Patenting

India is the sixth largest investor in research and development. It is a matter of great pleasure that the School of Management Studies organized a one-day seminar on 19th August, 2017 on the theme, "Innovative Projects and Patenting". The motive behind this seminar was to inculcate the research acumen among faculty members and research scholars in innovative projects and patent. Around 20 faculty members and Ph.D. scholars participated in this conference. In the beginning Dean of the School of Management Studies gave his inaugural speech; thereafter, Dr. Manish Didwania, a senior faculty member of the School of Management Studies delivered his lecture. Dr. Didwania, in his lecture mentioned about evolution of innovation and research and development in India. He also elaborated the strong policy support in developing the research & development sector. After lunch, Dr. Didwania tells about key players in Research & Development. In the end, Dr. B. S. Rathore gave the vote of thanks.

Brief Report of

One Day Seminar on Innovative Approaches

Held on

November 18, 2017

A brief report of the seminar is as follows:

The seminar was started at 10:00 AM with the formal inauguration by Dean- CET. The distinguished dignitaries of the University were also available during the inaugural session of the event

Dr. Anil Kumar began with a short introduction on Innovative approaches. Rapid advances in the field of artificial intelligence have profound implications for the economy as well as society at large. These innovations have the potential to directly influence both the production and the characteristics of a wide range of products and services, with important implications for productivity, employment, and competition. But, as important as these effects are likely to be, artificial intelligence also has the potential to change the innovation process itself, with consequences that may be equally profound, and which may, over time, come to dominate the direct effect.

COBMEC,

12th December, 2017

Subject: Approval to organize an in-house seminar on Types of Patent

Dear Sir,

With due respect, I would like to seek for your kind permission to organize a one-day seminar on Types of Patent in the month of December. As per the research policy of the Institute, we need to conduct two seminars in the autumn semester. The first seminar was already conducted on 19th August, 2017. In the month of December, the faculty members are free from teaching activities. Therefore, we can organize the seminar in the month of December so that all stakeholders can ensure their participation. The details related to the seminar are mention below:

Theme:	Types of Patent
Targeted Participants:	Faculty members and research scholars
Tentative Date:	12th December, 2017
Venue:	Seminar Hall of the COBMEC
Timings:	9.00 A.M. to 3.30 P.M. (Including Tea break of 30 minutes and lunch break of an hour)
Resource Person:	Dr. Manish Didwania and Prof. Sumit Kulshrestha

Hoping for your kind approval!

Yours Sincerely

Dr. Manish Didwania

Seminar Report on Types of Patent

It is a matter of great pleasure that the College of Business Management, Economics and Commerce organized a one-day seminar on 12th December, 2017 on the theme, "Types of Patent". The motive behind this seminar was to develop knowledge related to Patent and its filing among faculty members and research scholars. Around 25 faculty members and Ph.D. scholars participated in this conference. In the beginning Dean of the College of Business Management, Economics and Commerce, gave his inaugural speech: thereafter, Dr. Manish Didwania, a senior faculty member of the College of Business Management, Economics and Commerce delivered his lecture. Dr. Didwania, in his lecture mentioned about the need of Patent and its introduction. He also elaborated about the types of patents where he demonstrated that how a researcher should add new dimension of patent in his/her study. After lunch, Prof. Sumit Kulsreshtha managed the session and he delivered his lecture. In the end, Dr. Rajesh Sharma gave the vote of thanks.

Report on One Day Seminar

Copyright Act, Protection, Violation and Measures

Organized on 8th December 2018

Department of Arts, Mody University of Science and Technology, organized a one day seminar on "Copyright Act, Protection, Violation and Measures" on December 8, 2018 in ABB R-201. The seminar focused on Copyright act, its violation and preventive measures. The program started at 10:00 am with welcome address by Ms. Pragati Choudhary. The dignitaries on the dais were Prof. (Dr.) Atul Kumar, Dean SLA & SOS, MUST, Dr. A.S. Rao, Head, Department of Arts, MUST. Dr. Sangeeta Jhajharia gave the presentation and participants were made aware of the rights of authors in works of authorship - as distinguished from patents (whose subject matter is inventions), trademarks (which concern symbols of an enterprise's reputation and goodwill). Copyright protects the expression in a work of authorship against copying. The seminar also made the participants aware about various ways for the protection of any work of authorship and consequences of violation of copyright. Participants were made aware that copyright law does not protect the underlying ideas embodied in a work; neither does it protect against independent development. Queries of the participants were also addressed by the presenter. The event concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. A.S. Rao, Head (Department of Arts), SLA, MUST.

Report on the Seminar on Role of Engineers in Industry as team members and team leader

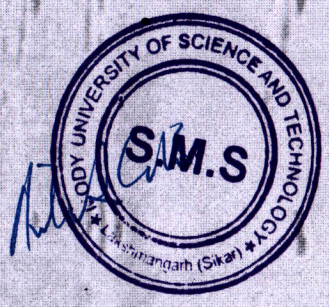

The seminar commenced with welcoming the gathering by Dr. Anirban Sengupta, Dean-SMS. While addressing the seminar Dr Sengupta, stressed on the knowledge of team management to engineers as the engineers become team leaders and such knowledge help engineers to be a good team leader. Dr. BS Rathore, convener narrated the objectives of the workshop and Dr. SS Rajpurohit, Co-coordinator explains about the importance of team and coordination. Total 39 participants including members of faculty, Research Scholars and Students of the University have participated in the seminar.

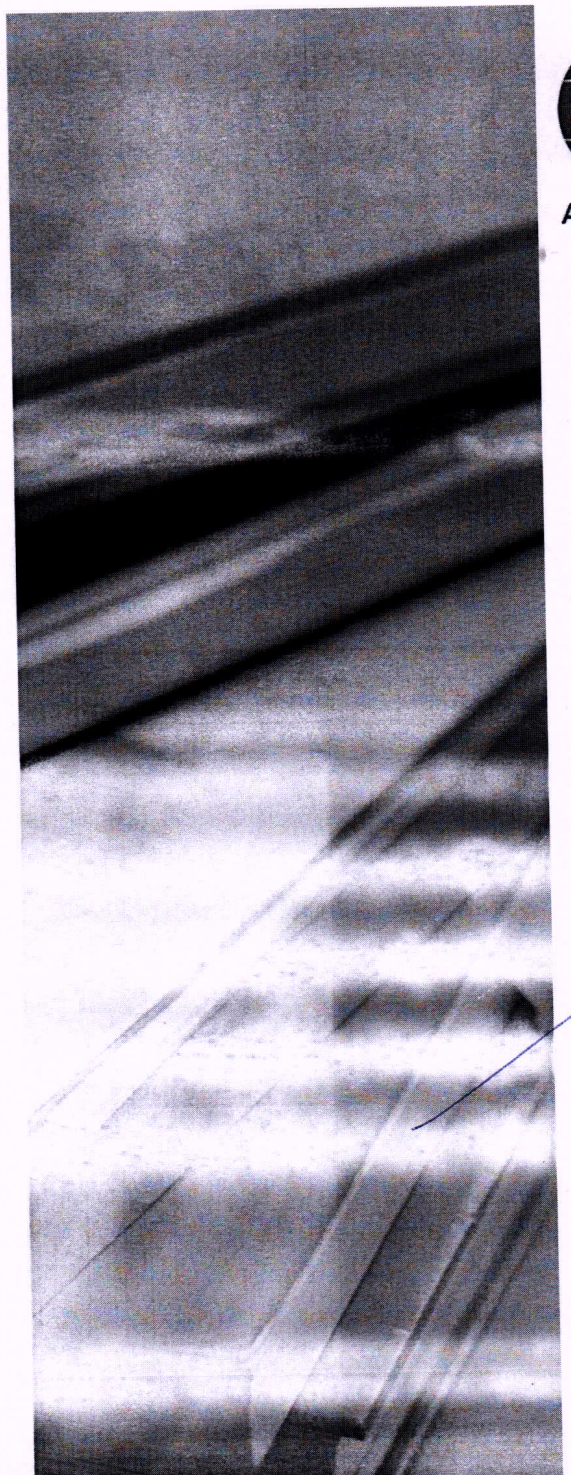

The seminar began with the importance of team management and coordination particularly amongst technical employees. The crucial part of managing people is getting them to be as productive as possible, whilst working in teams. Team working is common in technical or engineering environments. Whether it's a project team, product development, a production line, a maintenance team or a manufacturing cell, effective teamwork is the basis for most modern technical operations.

Further, it was explained that engineering projects are typically quite complex - even when they're on a modest scale. Many different disciplines and technical specialties are required to achieve the desired results and ensure a satisfactory level of reliability. To bring these different specialties together and keep them aligned with the same goal, engineering projects need someone to offer leadership.
As such, developing leadership skills is an important way for engineering professionals to add value to the projects.

The discussion session has more interactions from students and the seminar sparked the young minds of the university.

After lunch, Dr SS Rajpurohit shared his experiences and knowledge regarding team members and team leader. The vote of thanks was extended by Dr Rajesh Sharma .

REPORT ON ONE DAY SEMINAR

"FRONTIER TECHNOLOGIES IN WASTE MANAGEMENT"

Organized on

9th April 2019

Mody University of Science and Technology (MUST), Department of Chemistry organized a one day seminar on "Frontier Technologies in Waste Management" on April 9, 2019 in ABB SF R-201. The seminar focused on treatment and management of waste by using frontier technologies. The programme started at 10:30 am with the welcome address by Ms. Dipti Sharma. The dignitaries on the dias were Chief Guest Prof.(Dr.) R. T. Pardasani, Dean, School of Chemical Sciences and Pharmacy, Professor and Head, Central University of Rajasthan, Ajmer, Prof.(Dr.) Atul Kumar, Dean SOS and SLA, MUST, Dr. K. L. Ameta, Head, Department of Chemistry, MUST. Opening remarks and introduction of the programme was given by Dr. Sarita Khaturia, coordinator of the event. The University authorities were also available during the inaugural session of the event. Chief Guest talked about the major challenges of waste management areas and the techniques related to waste water purification developed in his laboratory. The event included activities such as poster-making and quiz–competitions on waste management. Such scientific activities aware and motivate the students to work efficiently by these techniques for waste management. The event concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. K. L. Ameta, Head (Department of Chemistry), MUST and prize and certificate distribution by the Chief Guest.

The list of participants is also attached herewith for your perusal.

Report on the One-day Seminar organized on "E-Waste Management"

School of Management Studies has organized a one-day seminar on April 24, 2019 on the theme, "E-Waste Management". The motive behind this seminar was to create awareness among faculty members and research scholars about the problem of E-waste and the environmental hazards created by it, while also inculcating the sense of responsibility among them, not only as the members of society but also as the members of academic fraternity regarding effective management of this problem and finding solutions for the same. Around 20 faculty members and research scholars participated in this conference.

Dean, School of Management Studies while welcoming all the participants in his inaugural speech emphasized upon the importance of the topic of the seminar. Dr. Surendra Rajpruohit, Associate Professor, School of Management Studies, conducted the workshop. Dr. Rajpurohit, dwelt upon the topic in detail and elaborated on the gravity of the problem, the existing policy guidelines as well as the responsibilities of various stakeholders with respect to E-Waste disposal, recycling and its management. Dr. Sanjay Joshi, in his post-lunch session, explained the importance of E-Waste Management on sustainable development, with special focus on tourism sector. Dr. Manish Didwania proposed the vote of thanks.

"DIFFERENT TYPES OF TAXES"

Organized on

29th April 2019

Mody University of Science and Technology (MUST), Department of Physics organized a one day seminar on "Different Types of Taxes" on April 29, 2019 in ABB SF R-201. The seminar focused on awareness of different types of Taxes applicable to the Indian citizens. The programme started at 10:30 with the formal inauguration by Dean-SLAS Prof. Atul Kumar. Other University authorities were also present during the inaugural session of the event. Opening remarks and introduction of the programme was given by Dr. Narendra Kumar, coordinator of the event.

The background behind tax and its types were elaborated in the lecture (by Dr. Narendra Kumar). The Lecture covered the Broad Categories as are Direct- and Indirect- Taxes. Various types of Direct Taxes incorporated in the discussion include: Income Tax, Gift Tax, Wealth Tax, Capital Gains Tax, Securities Transaction Tax, and Corporate Tax. On the Other hand, the Indirect Taxes unlike Direct Taxes, these taxes are not levied on individuals but on goods and services. These are: Sales Tax, Service Tax, Goods and Service Tax, Value Added Tax (VAT), Customs Duty, and Toll Tax. It was concluded that both Direct and Indirect Taxes are essential for the economic growth of the country.

The event concluded with vote of thanks by Dr. Rakhee Choudhary, Head (Department of Physics), MUST and certificate distribution by Dean SLAS.

The list of participants is also attached herewith for your perusal.

Kind regards,

Dr. Narendra Kumar

About the event: One day workshop on "Intellectual Property Right IPR" awareness program was organized by the School Of Design on 17th August 2018 for all Design participants of Mody University of Science and Technology. Mr. Sukhvir Singh, Assistant Professor, School of Design, Mody University of Science and Technology coordinated & enlightened participants about types of IPR and their importance. Mr. Singh discussed different forms of IPR in context of design industry. The focus and mandate of each IPR, Trademark and Copyrights and how they are protected for brands, logos, and patent application were also covered for the benefit of the participants.

Title: Workshop on Intellectual Property Right (IPR) awareness program.

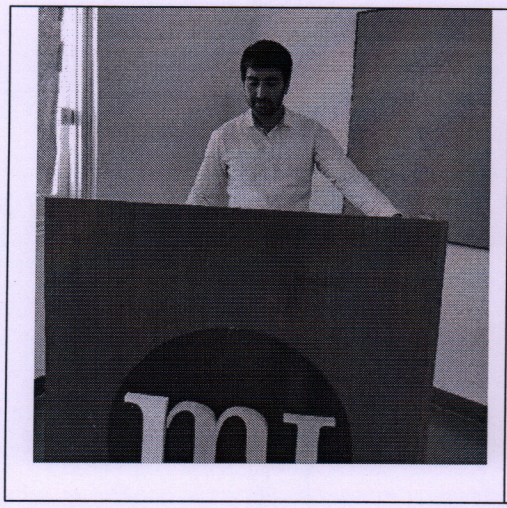

Aim: To understand the Intellectual Property Rights.

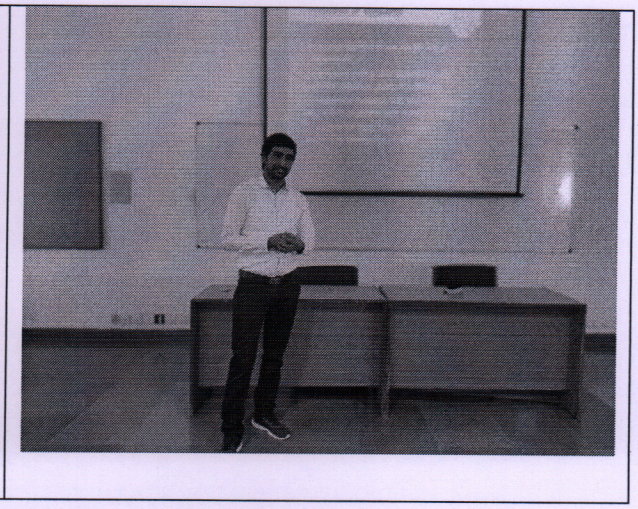

Venue: Room No. 333, ABB Building

Expert Details:

Mr. Sukhvir Singh: He is having diversified experience in the field of textiles and fashion marketing management. In the past, he was associated with pioneer institutes like NIT Jalandhar, The Technological Institute of Textile and Sciences and Amity University, Haryana. He is also actively associated with Textile Association India Delhi since 2008. He regularly publishes his research work in reputed SCI/SCOPUS indexed journals and has presented his work in many international conferences.

Glimpses of Seminar on Intellectual Property Right (IPR) awareness program

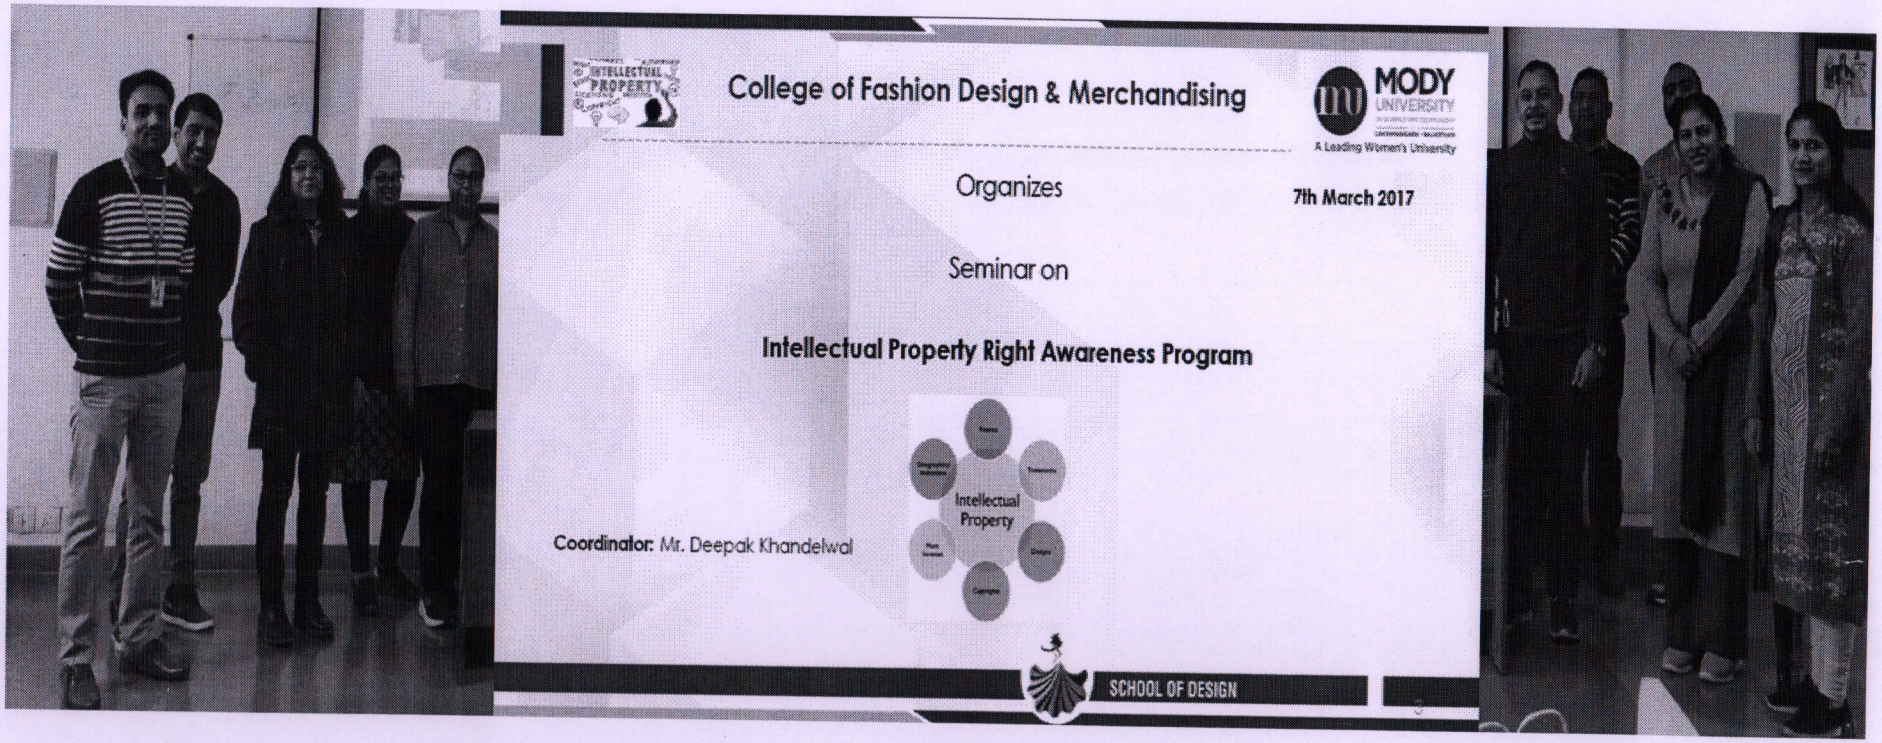

Conclusion

Mr. Singh started with a brief discussion on each form of Intellectual Property Right including Patents, Trademarks especially brand logos, copyrights and geographical indications which are used for manufactured & agriculture products. It was found that based on participating student's interaction and feedback it was observed that in this workshop, the participants were delighted to attend the workshop. They learned about the Intellectual Property Rights, types of Intellectual properties, and why IPR is important. Every brand also has its own logo and trademark that they get copyrighted and protected. Also, in this workshop, participants were able to understand the various parts of a patent application and the procedure of its registration. All the documents needed to file patent applications and conditions under which one can get a patent for any work.

Brief Report of Seminar on International Conference on public outrage for minority Rights
Held On 23, April, 2021

It is a pleasure to inform that the simar was conducted successfully. A brief report of the event is as follows-

The event was started at 9:30 am with the formal inauguration by Dean. The University authorities were also available during the inaugural session of the event. The said event was conducted at ABB Building and the venue was allowed for 50% occupancy (list attached). Major topics of the discussion during the event were practical knowledge of various acts. Students learned the aspects carefully and raised many queries which were answered successfully by the experts.
The list of the Participants is also attached herewith.

Types of Imposter Syndrome

3. THE PERFECTIONIST - an impossibly high standards for themselves that they often cannot reach. They will feel inadequate if they cannot achieve every goal, every time.

2. THE EXPERT - believe that before they begin anything, they must know everything going in & consistently feel unprepared, unknowledgeable, or inexperienced.

1. THE NATURAL GENIUS - Natural geniuses believe that their self-worth is tied to how naturally they pick up a skill. If it takes them to be proficient it makes them feel insecure.

4. THE SOLOIST - A soloist feels they must always accomplish tasks independently. Soloists view themselves as failures or frauds if they ask for assistance or help.

5. THE SUPERWOMAN/SUPERMAN - The experts often push themselves to work harder than those around them & set high expectations to take all happens to them. This can often leave super's feeling stressed, overwhelmed, and unappreciated.
